Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance Names New Executive Director

Luis Wilson and the Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance (SCGA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Sally Cain as Executive Director, SCGA.

Sally is a welcome addition to the SCGA and will bring considerable and diverse experience to the organization with a strong safety focus. Throughout her career, Sally has been an energetic leader, and enabled change in many organizations ranging from SaskTel, Viterra, Flint, the SGEU and many associations.

Luis expressed that "Sally demonstrates the energy, passion and commitment that we are looking for as the SCGA enters its next stage of growth and development." We expect her strong leadership and communication skills will be a valuable asset to the organization as we stretch ourselves to deliver on our memberships' needs.

The SCGA Board will meet on May 25th to focus Sally's efforts on the remainder of 2017 and assist in the development of a program for 2018 that meets the needs of our members. It is expected that focus to be on increased awareness of "Dig Safe", growing our membership and providing communication and education that will reduce incidents in Saskatchewan and make it a safer place to work. This direction will be shared with the membership as it is clarified and agreed to over the next few months.

The SCGA is a member driven organization dedicated to ensuring worker and public safety, environmental protection and the integrity of services by promoting and educating on effective damage prevention practices around underground infrastructure activities.
