Results: 30th Annual SCGA Contractor Safety Breakfasts

In 2019, '30' contractor safety breakfasts were held in '30' different communities across the Province. 6 team leads from supporting organizations delivered the presentation and video to over 3000 attendees. In the past five years more than 17,000 have been to one of these breakfasts about digging safe and we appreciate the 20 industry sponsors that have supported these efforts.

The 2019 video recap:

- A line contact in east Regina caused havoc for hundreds of people and luckily the impact was contained due to emergency preparedness of those who responded
- A homeowner, digging without a proper locate, almost burned down his house when replacing a fence
- Dozens of businesses were halted when a fibre line was cut
- A contractor told us the pain of dealing with the aftermath of an incident, including the impact to your business and reputation

Executive Director Announcement - Shannon Doka joins SCGA as Executive Director on June 21, 2019

Luis Wilson, President of the Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance (SCGA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Shannon Doka as the new Executive Director for the SCGA.

Shannon recently retired from SaskEnergy where in addition to her responsibilities as a Community Involvement Leader she was an active member of the SCGA Public Awareness and Education Committee. During her time with this Volunteer Committee she worked to develop strategies to ensure the successful implementation of the Annual Safety Awareness Contractors breakfasts and coordinated the logistics for each location.

Luis also extended appreciation to outgoing Executive Director Sally Cain. Sally served as Executive Director since May 2017.
